

February Movement

February has been an exciting month!

God is continuing to do amazing things in my journey as well as Togo. I know God is preparing me for what is ahead!

Here are some highlights of February:

I have reached 22% funded:

I am amazed by the generosity by all of my partners in ministry! I am getting closer and closer to that fully

New video is completed:

I am excited to share with you my latest video! Go check it out and feel free to share it with anyone. I am so funded mark. Keep praying for me on this journey. I truly believe God is going to do some big things this year.

Church Plant #3:

We have officially purchased the land for our 3rd church plant. The land has started to be cleared and prepped for construction. Begin praying for the pastor and the people in the surrounding villages. We are so excited for what God is doing!

Togo Palms Store:

Ryan Coson and Cosine Designs have partnered alongside the ministry in Togo! They have designed some merchandise and all thankful for Trent Warren and Elemental Creative Co. for creating an incredible video.

Here I come Northeast:

I will be in the Northeast region in March. I would love to connect with you when I am there! Let me know.

The Thread Co.:

I am excited to announce that we have partnered with a brand new company, The Thread Co. They are a subscription based t-shirt company and have partnered with the ministry in Togo to help pay for children's education. Do good. Look good.

They will be launching sometime in March. Go check them out!

the proceeds go to Togo.
Check them out!

Nineteen Hundred Church:

I had the incredible opportunity of speaking at Nineteen Hundred Church. You can listen to the message here! One person accepted Christ as their personal savior! Praise the Lord!

Let me know how I can be praying for you
